Dear Ms Moscogiuri, Ms Horton & Mr Ruthven,

We note that Women's Declaration International (WDI) was included in your report, A Growing Threat: The Anti-Rights Movement in the UK, as an "anti-rights" organisation.

These are serious and defamatory allegations which, in our view, are unsupported by evidence.

The Declaration on Women's Sex-Based Rights is WDI's principal publication and the clearest statement of our aims and principles. It is a public document, available for anyone to read and sign <https://womensdeclaration.com/>

We ask that you provide the evidence upon which WDI was characterised as an "anti-rights" organisation, retract the allegations made against WDI and publicly apologise for them.

Given the seriousness of the allegations, we would be grateful for your response at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Jo Brew, Coordinator,

Women's Declaration International
